

Character Models of Trust

The diagram consists of a large T-shape. The vertical stem is a solid grey bar. The horizontal top bar is a grey gradient. On either side of the stem, there are four empty rectangular boxes of varying sizes and orientations, intended for writing character names and details.

Instructions: Fill the T with characters who are models of Trust from the Bible, History, Science and Literature. Fill more details about this character in the surrounding boxes.