This image shows a series of horizontal lines for handwriting practice. It begins with a single solid horizontal line near the top of the page. Below this, there are 20 sets of three horizontal lines each. Each set consists of a solid top line, a dashed midline, and a solid bottom line, providing a guide for letter height and placement.

This image shows a large, vertically oriented rounded rectangle with a double-line border. Inside the rectangle, there are 20 horizontal rows of primary writing lines. Each row is composed of three lines: a solid top line, a dashed midline, and a solid bottom line. The rows are evenly spaced and fill most of the interior of the rounded rectangle.
